

Jeanie Straub
1540 Logan St., No. 35, Denver, Colo. 80203-1928
303-864-0399
<http://www.jeaniestraub.com/>

Profile I am an experienced, talented researcher well equipped to provide high-end, user-focused, anticipatory information services to a broad range of targeted users and to achieve design excellence in such user-targeted information products.

Education Emporia State University (ESU) School of Library and Information Management (SLIM)
Master of Library Science candidate

- Portfolio: http://www.jeaniestraub.com/mls_portfolio/mls_portfolio.htm
- Preservation article published in Summer 2004 News Library News, quarterly bulletin of the Special Libraries Association (SLA) News Division.
- Received travel grant to collect qualitative data under Dr. Jim Nyce in May 2004 on residents in rural Romanian village for community-needs assessment; to submit paper for 2005 International Federation of Library Associations (IFLA) conference; other publication credits pending.
- Surveyed 250 Rocky Mountain News employees — 32 percent return —for Community Analysis.
- Member of SLA, American Libraries Association and IFLA.
- Updated Essential References page for SLA News Division.
- Editor of online newsletter of Rocky Mountain chapter of SLA (RMSLA).
- Attended 2003 SLA Annual Conference in New York.
- Attended 2003 Colorado Libraries Association Conference in Keystone, Colorado.
- SLIM 2004 Library Science Scholarship.
- RMSLA 2003 Horizon Award for outstanding, lasting contribution by new member.
- SLA 2003 Scholarship.
- SLIM 2002 Library Science Scholarship.

Metropolitan State College of Denver Bachelor of Arts in Journalism, Women's Studies Minor

Please see http://www.jeaniestraub.com/mls_portfolio/websites/resume_2004_04/resume.htm

Career History Rocky Mountain News Library + New Media 10/2000-11/2003
<http://www.rockymountainnews.com/>

- Provided deadline as well as advance research for publication.
- Contributed to web edition – testing special projects, creating slide shows, adding to databases.
- Fielded revenue-generating public, corporate requests for research, permissions.
- Indexed text and photo archives; communicated with vendors.
- Contributed to development of book collection, including purchasing and cataloging.
- Provided year-round anticipatory service to assist entry in local, regional and national competitions.
- Wrote promotional text to inform users of additions to book collection, Intranet; edited copy for research librarian Carol Kasel, MLS.
- Provided detailed, multi-sourced and obscure research to in-house stylebook editor.
- Adept at searching DialogWeb, Factiva, LexisNexis, Autotrack, Accurint, et al.
- Working knowledge of public records, both hard-copy and electronic.

For additional career history, please see http://www.jeaniestraub.com/mls_portfolio/websites/resume_2004_04/resume.htm

Honors Please see http://www.jeaniestraub.com/mls_portfolio/websites/resume_2004_04/resume.htm

References

- Carol Kasel, MLS, Rocky Mountain News research librarian: (303) 892-5417
kasel@rockymountainnews.com
- Sharon Morris, MLS, coordinator of Ask Colorado virtual reference service and former academic adviser for the Emporia State University School of Library and Information Management: (303) 866-6922 morris_s@cde.state.co.us
- Dr. James Nyce, Ph.D., associate professor, Emporia State University School of Library and Information Management: (620) 341-5320 or (765) 789-8793 nycejame@emporia.edu
- Marcia Rodney, Ball Aerospace & Technologies Corp. senior research analyst, former president of the Rocky Mountain chapter of the Special Libraries Association: (303) 939-6187
mrodney@ball.com
- Leslie A. Young, Ph.D., vice president, communications / editor-in-chief of Massage & Bodywork Magazine, Associated Bodywork and Massage Professionals: (303) 674-8478, Ext. 648, or (800) 458-2267 leslie@abmp.com